November 2023

A Month of Remembering

From November 1-10th students will spend time learning about Veterans who served to protect us all through-out Canadian history.

Aboriginal Veterans Day on November 8th is a day to remember, recognize and acknowledge the contributions and sacrifices of Canada's Indigenous Veterans.

Remembrance Day is a day for all Canadians to remember all the people who served and sacrificed and those who continue to serve and sacrifice to protect the rest of us.
