James Wingfield, Emily Dunbar and community volunteers, Joe Burton, the Cedars Program Students, Star Porter, Caroline Ellis, all of the EAs, ADSS Administration and staff. If we have missed anyone, we are truly sorry, that was not our intention.

If you are able to donate any of the items below please contact Melody at 250-724-6115. Here are some ways to help:

- gift cards from any grocery, gas cards or clothing stores are always appreciated

- feminine products (no panty liners please), disposable razors, toothbrushes, toothpaste, dental floss, 2 in 1 shampoo and conditioner, shaving cream, men's and lady's deodorant, suits, tuxedos, ties and grad dresses.
- The ADSS Breakfast Club accepts monetary donations. If you would like to donate $50 or more and require a tax receipt, cheques can be made out to SD 70, subject line- ADSS Breakfast Club. If you do not require a receipt, a cheque (written to ADSS Breakfast Club) or cash donations can be dropped off at the ADSS office, please include your name/address information.

The ADSS Breakfast Club receives free magazines quarterly for our students from the SOS communications. If you or your student would like to read the new issue, you can access it online at: www.sossafetymagazine.com.

We appreciate any help that you can give. Stay Safe.
