Dear Parents/Guardians of Grade 12 Students,

We are writing to bring your attention to a growing concern involving graduation pranks within our community. Recently, there has been an increase in incidents where individuals are throwing eggs and cheese at vehicles and homes. This behavior can cause damage to property.

Please be aware that these actions are not condoned by the school and are considered acts of vandalism under the law. Such behavior may result in serious consequences, including involvement with law enforcement.

We ask for your support in speaking with your child about making responsible and respectful choices as they approach graduation. Celebrations should reflect positively on our students and the community.

We also encourage anyone who has been affected by these incidents to report them to the RCMP.

Thank you for your cooperation and support in helping us maintain a safe and respectful environment for everyone.

Sincerely,

ADSS Administration
