

Revised: 24 01 09

XXX: JORDAN'S PRINCIPLE (P)

---

Jordan's Principle is funding available to First Nation children to get supports that they need as soon as they need them. This is to ensure that there are no gaps for First Nation children and the services they may require to meet their health, social and educational needs and/or support.

The board supports ensuring that First Nation children and their families are supported in their applications of Jordan's Principle funding.

DRAFT